Dear Miss Parlow,

Your grand and glorious performance of the Kreutzer Sonata has just ended, and I must tell you how thrilled I was.

Such verve and passion, and that wonderful tone!

All year the CBC has fed us those puny, scrawny sounds of their favorite fiddlers. (Let the gentry be nameless.) You certainly showed them how Beethoven should be played.

I hope more of your performances are scheduled soon. It is so refreshing to hear the violin played well, and the music so alive.

All my friends here are happy about your great success, and wish to add their congratulations to mine being offered.

I shall try to get to Toronto this summer, and thank you personally for the magnificent broadcast.

Sincerely yours,
Samuel Margolian
